PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of First Busey Corporation for use at the special meeting of stockholders. The board has fixed the close of business on January 21, 2011, as the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. On the record date, First Busey had [] shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, outstanding and entitled to vote.

The approximate date on which this proxy statement and the accompanying proxy are first being sent to stockholders is January [], 2011.

The following information regarding the meeting and the voting process is presented in a question and answer format.

Why am I receiving this proxy statement and proxy card?

You are receiving a proxy statement and proxy card from us because on January 21, 2011 you owned shares of First Busey's common stock. This proxy statement describes the matters that will be presented for consideration by the stockholders at the special meeting. It also gives you information concerning the matters to assist you in making an informed decision.

When you sign the enclosed proxy card, you appoint the proxy holder as your representative at the meeting. The proxy holder will vote your shares as you have instructed in the proxy card, thereby ensuring that your shares will be voted whether or not you attend the meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, you should complete, sign and return your proxy card in advance of the meeting just in case your plans change.

If you have signed and returned the proxy card and an issue comes up for a vote at the meeting that is not identified on the form, the proxy holder will vote your shares, pursuant to your proxy, in accordance with his or her judgment.

What matters will be voted on at the meeting?

You are being asked to vote on a proposal to issue 7,497,000 shares of our common stock upon the conversion of our 9.00% cumulative mandatorily convertible perpetual preferred stock ("Series B Convertible Preferred Stock"). Additionally, you are being asked to vote on the ability to adjourn the special meeting in the event that we have insufficient votes to adopt the prior proposal.

If I am the record holder of my shares, how do I vote?

You may vote either by mail or in person at the meeting. To vote by mail, complete and sign the enclosed proxy card and mail it pursuant to the instructions on the proxy card. If you mark your proxy card to indicate how you want your shares voted, your shares will be voted as you instruct.

If you sign and return your proxy card but do not mark the form to provide voting instructions, the shares represented by your proxy card will be voted "for" the issuance of 7,497,000 shares of our common stock upon the conversion of our Series B Convertible Preferred Stock and "for" any adjournment, if necessary to solicit additional votes.

If you want to vote in person, please come to the meeting. We will distribute written ballots to anyone who wants to vote at the meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, you should complete, sign and return your proxy card in advance of the meeting just in case your plans change. Please note that, if your shares are held in the name of your broker (or in what is usually referred to as "street name"), you will need to arrange to obtain a "legal proxy" from your broker in order to vote in person at the meeting.

If I hold shares in the name of a broker or fiduciary, who votes my shares?

If you received this proxy statement from your broker or a trustee or other fiduciary who may hold your shares, your broker or fiduciary should have given you instructions for directing how they should vote your shares. It will then be their responsibility to vote your shares for you in the manner you direct. Brokers and other nominee holders generally do not have the power to vote shares held by them on the proposal to issue 7,497,000 shares of our common stock upon conversion of our Series B Convertible Preferred Stock unless the beneficial owner of the shares directs them to vote on the matter. As discussed above, if you want to vote in person at the meeting, you will need to arrange to obtain a "legal proxy" from your broker or fiduciary in order to vote in person at the meeting.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

It means that you have multiple holdings reflected in our stock transfer records and/or in accounts with stockbrokers. Please sign and return ALL proxy cards to ensure that all your shares are voted.

What if I change my mind after I return my proxy?

If you hold your shares in your own name, you may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You may do this by:

- signing another proxy with a later date and returning that proxy to:

First Busey Corporation
Attn: Mary E. Lakey
100 West University Street
Champaign, Illinois 61820;
- sending notice to us that you are revoking your proxy; or
- voting in person at the meeting (attendance at the special meeting will not in and of itself constitute the revocation of a proxy).

If you hold your shares in the name of a broker or fiduciary and desire to revoke your proxy, you will need to contact your broker or fiduciary to revoke your proxy.

How many votes do we need to hold the special meeting?

A majority of the shares of common stock that are outstanding and entitled to vote as of the record date must be present in person or by proxy at the meeting in order to hold the meeting and conduct business.

Shares are counted as present at the meeting if the stockholder either:

- is present in person at the meeting; or
- has properly submitted a signed proxy card or other proxy.

On January 21, 2011 the record date, there were [] shares of common stock issued and outstanding. Therefore, at least [] shares need to be present at the special meeting.

What options do I have in voting on each of the proposals?

You may vote "for," "against" or "abstain" on each of the matters described in this proxy statement and on any other proposal that may properly be brought before the meeting.

How many votes may I cast?

Generally, you are entitled to cast one vote for each share of common stock you owned on the record date. The proxy card included with this proxy statement indicates the number of shares owned by an account attributable to you.

How many votes are needed for each proposal?

Holders of a majority of the shares of common stock having voting power and present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting must approve the proposal to issue 7,497,000 shares of common stock upon the conversion of the shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. The approval of the second proposal, if necessary to adjourn to solicit additional votes, also must receive the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of common stock having voting power and present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting.

Where do I find the voting results of the meeting?

We will announce preliminary voting results at the meeting. We will also publish the voting results in a Current Report on Form 8-K, which we will file within four business days after the meeting.

Who bears the cost of soliciting proxies?

We will bear the cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to solicitations by mail, officers, directors or employees of First Busey or its subsidiaries may solicit proxies in person or by telephone. These persons will not receive any special or additional compensation for soliciting proxies. We may reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding proxy and solicitation materials to stockholders.

Important Notice Regarding the Availability of Proxy Material

REGISTERED DIRECT OFFERINGS OF COMMON STOCK AND SERIES B CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK

General

On December 31, 2010, we completed the sale of 12,718,635 shares of our common stock to certain institutional investors, as well as 318,6225 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock to certain institutional and individual investors, in registered direct offerings pursuant to a registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). The offering price of the common stock was $4.25 per share, for aggregate gross proceeds from the sale of common stock of approximately $54.1 million. The offering price of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock was $100,000 per share, for aggregate gross proceeds from the sale of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock of approximately $31.9 million. The intent of offering the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock was to maximize the amount of capital we could raise on similar terms as the common stock offering by selling a security that would be convertible into common stock following the closing of the two offerings. Subject to stockholder approval under applicable Nasdaq listing rules, the shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock are convertible into shares of common stock at a conversion price of $4.25, the same as the price of our common stock in the common stock offering (subject to adjustment in certain circumstances to avoid dilution). As of the date of this proxy statement, the shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will convert into an aggregate of 7,497,000 shares of common stock. Subject to certain ownership limitations, the shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock are mandatorily convertible into shares of our common stock on the third business day following approval from our stockholders to convert the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock into common stock.

The combined net proceeds to us from the registered direct offerings of common stock and Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, after deducting estimated offering expenses payable by us, were approximately $84.3 million.

Because our common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, the conversion of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock into shares of common stock requires stockholder approval pursuant to the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules. If the stockholders do not approve the proposal in this proxy statement, then the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock cannot be converted into shares of our common stock and they will remain outstanding, accruing dividends at a per annum rate equal to 9.00%.

As of the record date, 200,000,000 shares of common stock were authorized for issuance under our articles of incorporation. [] shares were issued and outstanding; [] were reserved for issuance on the exercise of outstanding stock options and for future awards under our stock-based compensation plans; 40,000 unallocated shares were held by our ESOP; and 573,833 were reserved for issuance pursuant to the warrant held by the United States Department of Treasury in connection with our participation in the Capital Purchase Program.

Certain Material Terms of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock

On the third business day following the required stockholder approval, the shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will mandatorily and automatically convert into shares of our common stock at a conversion rate equal to $4.25 per share, the same as the offering price of our common stock in the common stock offering (subject to adjustment in certain customary circumstances to avoid dilution). Upon conversion, we expect that an aggregate of 7,497,000 new shares of common stock will be issued to the holders of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. Additionally, upon conversion of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, accrued but unpaid dividends, if any, will be paid in cash.

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, if on the conversion date of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock a holder of shares of such stock, together with its affiliates, owns or controls, or would own or control upon conversion, more than 9.9% of the total outstanding number of any class of our voting securities, such shares of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will not be converted on the conversion date to the extent the conversion would result in the holder and its affiliates owning or controlling our voting securities in excess of 9.9% of the total outstanding number of any class of our voting securities unless such holder has obtained the necessary regulatory approval. Any shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock that are not converted on the conversion date due to this limitation will be mandatorily converted immediately following a transfer of such shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock to certain permitted transferees.

Until the shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock convert into shares of common stock, the holders of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive, on each share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock if, as and when declared by the board of directors, cumulative cash dividends with respect to each dividend period at a per annum rate equal to 9.00% of the liquidation amount per share, which is $100,000, and the amount of accrued and unpaid dividends for any prior dividend period on such share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, if any. Dividends began to accrue and are cumulative from the issuance date and will be payable quarterly on March 15, June 15, September 15 and December 15 in arrears on each dividend payment date. Dividends not timely paid on the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will compound on each scheduled dividend payment date.

We may not pay dividends on our common stock unless all accrued and unpaid dividends for all past dividend periods on all outstanding shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock have been or are contemporaneously declared or paid in full.

Until it is converted into common stock, with respect to distributions upon our liquidation, winding-up and dissolution, the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock:

- ranks senior and prior to our common stock, and each other class or series of equity securities, whether currently issued or issued in the future, that does not by its terms rank pari passu or senior to the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock with respect to payment of dividends or rights upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up of our affairs in the amount equal to the greater of: (i) the sum of (A) $100,000 per share and (B) the amount of any accrued and unpaid dividends, whether or not declared, to the date of payment; and (ii) 110% of the payment or distribution to which a holder of such stock would be entitled if the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock were converted to common stock immediately before such liquidation, dissolution, or winding up;
- ranks on parity with each other class or series of our equity securities, whether currently issued or issued in the future, that by its terms provides that it ranks pari passu with the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock with respect to payment of dividends or rights upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up of our affairs (our Fixed-Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series T that was issued to Treasury pursuant to the Capital Purchase Program ranks pari passu to the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock); and

- ranks junior to each other class or series of our equity securities, whether currently issued or issued in the future, that by its terms ranks senior to the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock with respect to payment of dividends or rights upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up of our affairs.

The Series B Convertible Preferred Stock is perpetual and is not redeemable by the holders of such stock. Subject to any necessary regulatory approval, however, we may redeem shares of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, in whole or in part, on or after the third anniversary of the date of its issuance at a price per share equal to the greater of: (i) 125.0% of the sum of (A) $100,000 per share and (B) the amount of any accrued and unpaid dividends, whether or not declared, to the date of payment; and (ii) 110% of (A) the number of shares of common stock into which a share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock would be convertible on the trading day immediately prior to the date fixed for redemption multiplied by (B) the closing price of common stock on such trading day; provided that in no event may the redemption price exceed the amount determined in accordance with clause (i) above when replacing "125.0%" with "150.0%."

The Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will not have any voting rights, except to the extent required by Nevada law. The Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, as well as each share of our common stock into which the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock is convertible, were registered pursuant to a registration statement filed with the SEC. Additionally, we expect that the shares of common stock issued pursuant to a conversion will be listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market.

PROPOSAL NO. 1: APPROVAL OF THE ISSUANCE OF COMMON STOCK UPON CONVERSION OF THE SERIES B CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK

General

As noted above, we have issued 318.6225 shares of our Series B Convertible Preferred Stock that are convertible into 7,497,000 shares of common stock. Such conversion is subject to the approval of this proposal, which provides for the conversion of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock into shares of common stock. Because our common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, we must comply with Nasdaq rules and regulations. Subject to certain exceptions, Section 5635 of the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules and related interpretive guidance requires stockholder approval prior to any issuance or sale of common stock to directors or executive officers if the sales price is less than the common stock's market value or book value. Section 5635 also requires stockholder approval prior to any issuance or sale of common stock if the issuance: (i) is not made pursuant to a public offering; (ii) is sold at a price that is less than the common stock's market value or book value; and (iii) is equal to or greater than 20% of the outstanding shares or voting power before the issuance.

One of our directors and certain family members of another of our directors participated in the registered direct offering of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, and such securities are convertible into common stock at a rate of $4.25 per share, which is the same as the offering price of the common stock, but below the per share market value and book value of our common stock as of the closing date and the date of this proxy statement. Furthermore, while the aggregate number of shares of common stock sold in the common stock offering represented only approximately 19.2% of the shares of common stock outstanding prior to the offerings, if such shares are aggregated with the shares of common stock into which the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock are convertible, the shares issued pursuant to the offerings represent approximately 30.5% of the number of shares of common stock outstanding before the offerings. In light of the foregoing, pursuant to Section 5635 of the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules and related interpretive guidance, we agreed with the purchasers of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock that we would seek stockholder approval to approve the conversion of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock into shares of common stock, as provided in this proposal.

Effect of Failure to Obtain Stockholder Approval

If the stockholders do not approve the conversion of the 318.6225 shares of our Series B Convertible Preferred Stock pursuant to the Nasdaq rules, then such shares cannot be converted into shares of our common stock and they will remain outstanding. As they remain outstanding, the holders of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will be entitled to quarterly dividends at the annual rate of 9.00%, which will accumulate and compound in the event that they are not paid in a particular payment period. Further, as long as any dividends are owed to the holders of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, we will be prohibited from paying any dividends on our common stock. Additionally, if the stockholders do not approve the proposal at the special meeting, we must hold meetings at least every three months to seek such stockholder approval, in accordance with an agreement we made with the purchasers of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock.

Effect of Stockholder Approval

If the stockholders approve the issuance of shares of our common stock upon the conversion of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock pursuant to the Nasdaq rules, the existing 318.6225 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will be automatically converted into 7,497,000 shares of our common stock on the third business day following the special meeting (subject to the ownership limitations described above). Accrued dividends on the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will be paid at the time of conversion and no other dividend payments will accrue or be payable, and (so long as the ownership limitations on conversion described above are not triggered) no shares of Series B

Convertible Preferred Stock will remain issued or outstanding following the conversion date. The common stock issued in such a conversion would carry the same rights and preferences as the shares of common stock currently issued and outstanding. The issuance of shares of common stock upon the conversion of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, however, will have an immediate dilutive effect on earnings per share and the voting power of existing stockholders at the time of the issuance.

Stockholder Vote Necessary for Approval of the Conversion

To be approved by our stockholders, the conversion of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock into common stock must receive the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of common stock having voting power and present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting. Accordingly, broker non-votes (which occur when a broker or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner reports those shares as present but does not vote on a proposal) will not affect whether this proposal is approved, but abstentions on this proposal will count as votes against this proposal.

The board of directors believes that the issuance of shares of our common stock upon conversion of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock is in the best interests of our stockholders and recommends that you vote your shares FOR this proposal.

PROPOSAL NO. 2: ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING

A quorum is the number of shares that must be present, in person or by proxy, in order for business to be transacted at the special meeting. Holders representing a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock, present in person or by proxy, are necessary to constitute a quorum. Therefore, at the special meeting, the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of at least [] shares of common stock, will be required to establish a quorum. Stockholders of record who are present at the special meeting in person or by proxy and who abstain are considered stockholders who are present and entitled to vote, and will count towards the establishment of a quorum. Broker non-votes are included for purposes of determining whether or not a quorum exists.

If this proposal is approved and at the time of the special meeting: (i) there are either insufficient votes to adopt the proposal to allow the conversion of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock into shares of common stock pursuant to Nasdaq rules; or (ii) a quorum is not present, we intend to adjourn the special meeting to solicit additional proxies. If you submit a proxy card without giving specific voting instructions, the proxies will vote the shares as recommended by the board. However, any proxy card which is signed and voted against the first proposal and not voted in favor of this proposal will not be voted in favor of an adjournment.

Stockholder Vote Necessary

Approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of common stock having voting power and present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting, whether or not a quorum is present. Accordingly, broker non-votes will not affect whether this proposal is approved, but abstentions on this proposal will count as votes against this proposal.

COMMON STOCK OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the beneficial ownership of our common stock as of January 1, 2011, by all directors, by each person who is known by us to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of our outstanding common stock, by each named executive officer and by all directors and executive officers as a group. The table also sets forth the pro forma stock ownership, assuming the conversion of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock as of January 1, 2011, by all directors, by each person who is known by us to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of our outstanding common stock, by each named executive officer and by all directors and executive officers as a group.

The number of shares beneficially owned by each director, director nominee, 5% stockholder or executive officer is determined under rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and the information is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Under such rules, beneficial ownership includes any shares as to which the individual has sole or shared voting power or investment power and also any shares which the individual has the right to acquire within 60 days of January 1, 2011, through the exercise of any option or other right. Unless otherwise indicated, each person has sole investment and voting power (or shares such powers with his or her spouse) with respect to the shares set forth in the following table. In certain instances, the number of shares listed includes, in addition to shares owned directly, shares held by the spouse or minor children of the person, or by a trust of which the person is a trustee or in which the person may have a beneficial interest. In some cases, the person has disclaimed beneficial interest in certain of these shares.
