Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 24, 2016, First Busey Corporation ("First Busey") announced that the Court dismissed the putative class action lawsuit captioned Patel v. Douglass, et al., filed in the Circuit Court of the County of St. Louis, Missouri, Case No. 16SL-CC00406 (the "Patel Case") against the board of directors (the "Board") of Pulaski Financial Corp. ("Pulaski"), Pulaski and First Busey, related to the merger of Pulaski with and into First Busey (the "Merger").

The Court, ruling on Pulaski's motion to dismiss, held that the plaintiff's exclusive remedy to challenge the Merger is to exercise his dissenter's right to obtain a judicial appraisal and fair value for his shares of Pulaski stock. In addition, the Circuit Court found that the Board's decision to approve the Merger was fully protected by the business judgment rule and that the plaintiff failed to allege any specific facts showing fraud, illegality or an irrational business judgment.

The other putative class action lawsuit related to the Merger, captioned Daub v. Douglass, et al., filed in the Circuit Court, Case No. 16SL-CC00582 (the "Daub Case") against the same defendants, has been consolidated with the Patel Case. However, the Daub Case remains pending. First Busey currently expects that the defendants will seek dismissal of the Daub Case on similar grounds.

Special Note Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 with respect to the financial condition, results of operations, plans, objectives, future performance and business of First Busey and Pulaski. Forward-looking statements, which may be based upon beliefs, expectations and assumptions of First Busey's and Pulaski's management and on information currently available to management, are generally identifiable by the use of words such as "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "plan," "intend," "estimate," "may," "will," "would," "could," "should" or other similar expressions. Additionally, all statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K, including forward-looking statements, speak only as of the date they are made, and neither First Busey nor Pulaski undertakes any obligation to update any statement in light of new information or future events. A number of factors, many of which are beyond the ability of First Busey and Pulaski to control or predict, could cause actual results to differ materially from those in its forward-looking statements. These factors include, among others, the following: (i) the possibility that any of the anticipated benefits of the proposed transaction between First Busey and Pulaski will not be realized or will not be realized within the expected time period; (ii) the risk that integration of operations of Pulaski with those of First Busey will be materially delayed or will be more costly or difficult than expected;

(iii) the inability to complete the proposed transaction due to the failure of required stockholder approvals; (iv) the failure to satisfy other conditions to completion of the proposed transaction, including receipt of required regulatory and other approvals; (v) the failure of the proposed transaction to close for any other reason; (vi) the effect of the announcement of the transaction on customer relationships and operating results; (vii) the possibility that the transaction may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events; (viii) the strength of the local and national economy; (ix) changes in state and federal laws, regulations and governmental policies concerning First Busey's and Pulaski's general business (including the impact of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and the extensive regulations to be promulgated thereunder, as well as the rules adopted by the federal bank regulatory agencies to implement Basel III); (x) changes in interest rates and prepayment rates of First Busey's and Pulaski's assets; (xi) increased competition in the financial services sector and the inability to attract new customers; (xii) changes in technology and the ability to develop and maintain secure and reliable electronic systems; (xiii) the loss of key executives or employees; (xiv) changes in consumer spending; (xv) unexpected results of acquisitions, including the acquisition of Pulaski; (xvi) outcomes of existing or new litigation involving First Busey or Pulaski, including the litigation described in this Current Report on Form 8-K; (xvii) the economic impact of any future terrorist threats or attacks; (xviii) the economic impact of exceptional weather occurrences such as tornadoes, hurricanes, floods, and blizzards; and (xix) changes in accounting policies and practices. These risks and uncertainties should be considered in evaluating forward-looking statements and undue reliance should not be placed on such statements. Additional information concerning First Busey and Pulaski and their business, including additional factors that could materially affect First Busey's and Pulaski's financial results, are included in First Busey's and Pulaski's filings with the SEC.

Additional Information
